FOCUS ON REAL LEARNING

When you count on the Breakaway Learning Center for advanced application training, you get real training in a technologically advanced executive facility. This is no hotel ballroom or corporate cafeteria. You learn in a hands-on environment built specifically for professionals trying to unleash their performance.

You learn on a networked laptop computer system fully loaded with all necessary programs. So you can sit down and get to work.

Ergonomically and environmentally engineered, the facility is in the world headquarters of Breakaway Technologies, Inc. in Yardley, PA. An easy commute from airports in Philadelphia, PA or Newark, NJ, the learning center accommodates executives coming from just about anywhere.

Can't make it to our learning center? When you have a large group that needs the same training, ask about our on-site programs and we'll bring the training to your facility.

Software Knowledge and Technical Expertise

Breakaway Learning Center is affiliated with Breakaway Technologies, Inc., an enterprise that blends business savvy with technological know-how so you can enhance your analytical and data management capabilities. We help you apply superior business intelligence solutions that improve your ability to mine and use data. Our unique approach helps you answer what-if scenarios, spot trends and enhance your analytical capabilities.

Make Us Your Offsite Meeting Facility

You can get even more out of the Breakaway Learning Center training facility. You can take advantage of the location, facilities and technological tools to conduct your own offsite meetings. Whether you're getting away from the day-to-day demands to focus on key organization issues, or looking for a place for sensitive presentations, brainstorming sessions, business process re-engineering and other critical meetings, you can use our facilities for an executive level retreat. Offsite at the Breakaway Learning Center's facility, your meeting will be more focused and you'll accomplish more.

Real Educators Make Us Unique

You get more than hands-on training from the Breakaway Learning Center. You get the wisdom of actual educators. Our trainers have both expertise in the software they teach, and classroom experience.

Certified for the software they teach, our educators also possess practical experience. Technical and financial experts, they teach software to fit the applications you face in your decision-making process.
